

Color A

Sanibel Grackle Technically Good and Good Composition Subject matter lacks WOW factor

Loud & Scary Great creativity and use of wide angle but image is Busy

Long Billed Curlew Very good composition and technical technique

Logan 1 HAS WOW FACTOR

Spring Sprigs Technically OK& good composition but subject matter is not interesting

Meshed Technically and compositionally great but subject matter is subtle

Perfect Imperfection I find the subject matter treated a little harshly Sharpness ? contrast ? not sure but I think of flowers as being presented more softly

Patina Technically GREAT but very busy

Marks Sunrise Technically OK shadow detail good

Darn Cool Dam Excellent use of HDR

Oak Alley Subtle This is a piece of ART

Mittens Sunrise Nice but just another one

Green Caterpillar Great nature shot But hard on the eyes to analyze

Cactus Sunset A travel magazine shot

Battle of Branches Technically and compositionally ok but subject matter is not interesting The primary value of this shot is it's color

Dee La Vista Technically perfect, The centered composition helps this shot but it's just another building to most viewers

Logan 2 Excellent overall has impact

Color B

Angry North wind A tad soft on the focus

Blue & Green Reflections Busy composition and found the horizon line disturbing

Just Hanging The branch in front of the birds face is a problem

Cling for Dear life Super composition edges need darkening to keep your eye on this busy subject

See I Can Fly This is an image for a newspaper story but too busy for competition the yellow fence attracts the eye away from the intended subject

Old Boats Glad the dingy is tied up BUT I find the rope leads your eye out of the image rather than in

White tiger The blue eyes makes this shot

Wazuuup the lighting is v good here and the blurring of the background keeps the viewer in the image. The animals facial expression provides interest

Maneater The subject matter keeps the viewer in the image initially trying to determine if it's stuffed or real

Hello Facial expression makes this image the highlight to the left draws you out though

Spoonbill Landing Good subject and wing position Nice presentation

Morning Fog In spite of the title I find the subject to be the Frog which is too small in the frame

Creative

Steyr Austia Nicely executed

Red Glass Nice pattern but your eye keeps searching for the subject in the frame

Lamp unto my feet High points for Creativity the inclusion of the feet makes it more than just another HDR or lighthouse shot

The Marion Excellent use of color to attract the viewers eye to the subject

Aunt Sarahs lost caust A nice hdr but as a subject just another shack

The Color Cabbage A bullseye pattern nothing more

Tulip bottoms a refreshing view & Creative too

Nantahala relative to previous images this showed up too light on my monitor . The water blur is just right to create interest

Sorry members only Cute but a very obvious paste up due to the perspective

Self Very creative No specific part of the image holds your eye

The Red Horse the tree distracts one from the intended subject

Good Food for your soul Good execution and the open window draws you in. Yet it is a subtle subject lacking WOW factor

Orbit interesting composition that keeps you in the picture in spite of being very busy

Cracker Church I'd prefer to see more density in the black & white

Landing in another world The greenish milky color cast is disturbing and the subject is very small in the frame

NOVICE

Barren Beauty Technically very good Excellent composition. Subject matter lacks WOW factor This is art from nature

Sam I am Good expressions and skin tones A couple of hot spots one which is very distracting and leads your eye out of the frame

Candy Store Very creative view the color creates impact

Mono A

On the Prowl The Composition (wing position ) makes this image

Geyser Basin Great composition the grittiness (contrast ) is a bit to harsh

Reflective Beauty The Composition gives this image WOW factor although I would prefer it to be darker

Forrest Gump Hwy the straight on composition draws you all the way in to this image.

Mono B

Ship Wreck Has WOW factor though the primary subject the boat would look better somewhat darker

Nice Kitty a bit soft & the subjects eyes are not engaging the viewer

Wazzup As a Monochrome the light area to the left is very distracting
